Fundraiser

Ava Batty is once again challenging herself to raise money for PADS (Positive about Down syndrome) a charity close to the family's heart. Last year Ava raised an amazing £550 by holding a cake sale at school. This year she is training for the Junior Birmingham Great Run and, having already achieved her initial target of £500, has raised her target to £1000. If you would like to support Ava's effort please use the Just Giving link or the QR code below.

Ava is a pupil at RHIS and we are extremely proud of her— a fantastic example of one of our ex-pupils showing such compassion and determination.

Please respect our neighbours and other car users when parking at school. Residents have contacted school to report blocked driveways. Thank you.

This week's 'Congratulations' go to...

Ash Class – Charlie T, you have been trying really hard with your counting this week. You have noticed when the total has changed and told me if some have been added or taken away.

Elm Class— Billy, you have blown us away this week with your 'can do' attitude towards your writing and phonics this week. Well done and thank you.

Oak Class— Aurora B-P, you are trying really hard with your handwriting.

Holly Class — Harrison, for your hard work in Maths this week. You have been a superstar when comparing the volume of different objects. You could explain which object has a greater volume and why. Well done Harrison.

Hazel Class – Rudy, for joining in well during our PE sessions. You were able to throw and catch the ball with skill whilst learning the fielding rules for cricket. Well done.

Willow Class — Shervin, for your great observational and artistic skills during art this week. You concentrated carefully to draw 'Balloon Dog' inspired by the artwork of Jeff Koons.

Chestnut Class — Falak, for your super writing this week. You thought of some very interesting adjectives to describe the beach. Well done.

Hawthorn Class – Freya has come back after Easter eager to listen, participate and learn. She puts up her hand to contribute in all our lessons.

Sycamore Class - Lewis, for his participation in all our lessons. Lewis is always willing to put his hand up and have a go.

Well done everyone!
